The Three Sisters

The Three Sisters is the Blue Mountains’ most amazing landmark. You can find it at Echo Point, Katoomba, around 2.5 kilometres from the Great Western Highway, near Sydney. This natural landmark is visited by millions of people each year.

The Three Sisters is an unusual rock formation. Aboriginal legend says they were three sisters who were turned to stone.

The colour of the Three Sisters change throughout the day and throughout the seasons as the sunlight brings out the magnificent colours.

The Three Sisters is also floodlit (lit by lights) until around 11pm each evening. You can see them against the black night sky.

The first Sister is 922 metres tall;

The second Sister 918 metres tall;

The third Sister is 906 metres tall.

That's over 3000 feet above sea level!
