The country exports 3,000 logs of frogs legs to France annually.

Indonesia covers three time zones.

Badminton is a popular sport.

Major Sites

- Borobudur Temple
- Komodo National Park
- Jakarta
- Lombok
- Bali

Fun Facts

- Indonesia
Indonesia is the world's largest producer of palm oil. Other important agricultural products include tropical spices, rubber, cocoa, coffee, tea, rice, and palm. Indonesia supplies 20% of the world's copper, nickel, bauxite, gold, and coal. Some of Indonesia's top exports are coal products, petroleum, andrubber. The top export destinations include Japan, China, and the USA. Indonesia is a multi-party republic ruled by a president and vice president. The president is elected by the legislature, the vice president is elected by the parliament. The official language is Indonesian. The currency is the Indonesian rupiah. The capital is Jakarta. The highest point is Gunung Jayawijaya at 4,884 meters. The literacy rate is 92.8%. The population is approximately 262.4 million (2017).